

American College of Trial Lawyers
2023 Spring Meeting
THE RITZ-CARLTON KEY BISCAIYNE
MIAMI, FLORIDA

Dear Friends:

I am delighted to welcome you to the Spring Meeting of the American College of Trial Lawyers at the charming Ritz-Carlton Key Biscayne.

We have planned an exciting meeting, beginning with a grand Welcome to Miami at the President's Reception event on Thursday evening. Each Region has its own banner displayed to facilitate the opportunity to meet the Inductees from your area and welcome friends.

President-Elect William Murphy has planned a remarkable two-day program of prominent speakers addressing current and thought-provoking topics during our morning General Sessions. We encourage your spouse or guest to attend as they are sure to be entertained, educated, and enlightened by these speakers.

Excursions and activities offered on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday afternoons promise to provide cultural discovery and local adventure. Explore the Everglades by airboat, kayak through historic Virginia Key or explore the cuisine and history of Miami's Little Havana. We hope you will enjoy the beach, resort pools, fitness areas and grounds for a relaxing and fun weekend.

Experience Havana Nights with authentic food and entertainment during Friday evening's event, and of course, the traditional highlight of our meeting is Saturday night's induction of new Fellows and Black Tie Banquet, followed by dancing and the time-honored Sing Along.

As a reminder, and out of respect for those spouses and guests who have chosen to register, please honor ACTL meeting protocol, which allows for only paid registrants to participate in ACTL breakfasts, General Sessions and evening events.

Be sure to wear your name badge for all events so we may greet each other by name.

I look forward to seeing you all!

In Alphabetical Order

Honorable Stephen Breyer (Ret.)

Lewis F. Powell, Jr. Lecturer

Washington, D.C.

Honorable Stephen Breyer was born in San Francisco, California, and he received an A.B. from Stanford University, a B.A. from Magdalen College, Oxford, and an LL.B. from Harvard Law School. He served as a law clerk to Justice Arthur Goldberg of the Supreme Court of the United States during the 1964 Term, as a Special Assistant to the Assistant U.S. Attorney General for Antitrust, 1965–1967, as an Assistant Special Prosecutor of the Watergate Special Prosecution Force, 1973, as Special Counsel of the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee, 1974–1975, and as Chief Counsel of the committee, 1979–1980. He was an Assistant Professor, Professor of Law, and Lecturer at Harvard Law School, 1967–1994, a Professor at the Harvard University Kennedy School of Government, 1977–1980, and a Visiting Professor at the College of Law, Sydney, Australia and at the University of Rome. From 1980–1990, he served as a Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit, and as its Chief Judge, 1990–1994. He also served as a member of the Judicial Conference of the United States, 1990–1994, and of the United States Sentencing Commission, 1985–1989. President Clinton nominated him as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and he took his seat August 3, 1994. Justice Breyer retired from the Supreme Court on June 30, 2022.

John T. Broderick Jr., FACTL

Senior Director, External Affairs, Dartmouth-Hitchcock
Former Chief Justice, New Hampshire Supreme Court
Concord, New Hampshire

Chief Justice John T. Broderick, Jr., (Ret.) is the former Executive Director of the Warren B. Rudman Center and former Dean of the University of New Hampshire School of Law. Prior to leaving the bench, he was Chief Justice of the New Hampshire Supreme Court since 2004, and served as an Associate Justice since 1995. As a trial lawyer at the law firm of Devine, Millimet, Stahl & Branch in Manchester, he chaired the litigation department for several years and served as President of the State Bar Association and the State Trial Lawyer Association. In 1989, he began his own firm of Merrill & Broderick, specializing in civil trial work.

After becoming Chief Justice in 2004, he focused on making justice more accessible, affordable and understandable, and on needed change and innovation in the court system to bring it into the 21st century. He is the recipient of several awards for professionalism and commitment to legal services for the poor. Most recently he received a Lifetime Achievement Award from the New Hampshire Business and Industry Association. He is the only judicial officer in the Association's 97-year history to be so honored. He also received the Bill of Rights Award from the American Civil Liberties Union Chapter in New Hampshire and was recently inducted into the Warren E. Burger Society established by the National Center for State Courts. He is the recipient of four honorary degrees.

Fred D. Gray, FACTL

Thurgood Marshall Equality and Justice Award Recipient

Civil Rights Activist

Tuskegee, Alabama

Fred David Gray is a pioneer of the Civil Rights Movement and a native of Montgomery, Alabama. He is one of the few courageous Black lawyers who risked their lives to attack segregation in the court. He currently lives in Tuskegee, Alabama with his lovely wife, Carol, and continues to practice law specializing in civil rights litigation.

At ninety-one years old, he has pending in the Circuit Court of Macon County, Alabama a case filed by him on behalf of Macon County to declare Macon County owner of the old courthouse site, which was conveyed to the Tuskegee Chapter United Daughters of Confederacy in 1906 for the purposes of converting the property to a white-only park and erecting a monument to the memory of the confederate soldiers from Macon County in honor of their service in the Civil War. Macon County wants to reclaim the property and remove the statue.

He authored Bus Ride to Justice, first released in 1995. A Revised Edition released in 2013 was previewed at the Jimmy Carter Center and broadcast on C-Span Book TV. Upon receipt of a copy, President Barack Obama wrote in a letter to Mr. Gray, "Today, we stand on the shoulders of giants who helped move us toward a more perfect Union, and I appreciate your sharing your story." The Tuskegee Syphilis Study was released in May 1998. He also wrote The Sullivan Case: A Direct Product of the Civil Rights Movement, a review for Case Western Reserve Law Review.

On July 7, 2022, President Joseph Biden awarded Mr. Gray with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, this country's highest award for a civilian. Mr. Gray's life mission has been to "stamp out discrimination," and that is what he continues to do.

The Honourable Justice Mahmud Jamal

Supreme Court of Canada

Ottawa, Ontario

Justice Mahmud Jamal was appointed to the Supreme Court of Canada on July 1, 2021. He served as a justice of the Court of Appeal for Ontario from 2019 to 2021.

Before his appointment to the bench, Justice Jamal practised with Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP for over 23 years in the fields of appellate litigation, constitutional and public law, class actions, and commercial litigation. He appeared before the Supreme Court of Canada as counsel to a party or intervener in 35 appeals addressing a wide range of civil, constitutional, criminal, and regulatory issues, including issues of Quebec civil law. He also appeared before the courts of seven provinces, the Federal Court, the Federal Court of Appeal, the Tax Court of Canada, and various federal and provincial administrative tribunals.

Justice Jamal was born in Kenya, raised in England, and completed high school in Edmonton, Alberta. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Toronto, Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Civil Law degrees from the Faculty of Law of McGill University, and a Master of Laws from Yale Law School, which he attended on a Fulbright Scholarship. He served as a law clerk to Justice Melvin L. Rothman of the Quebec Court of Appeal and Justice Charles D. Gonthier of the Supreme Court of Canada.

Joseph Margulies, Esq.

Professor of the Practice of Law and Government
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York

For those who care about titles, I am a Professor of the Practice of Government at Cornell University. I don't really know what that means either. I am trained as a lawyer and have spent the whole of a long career representing the people that others denounce as monsters. Some of my clients have been imprisoned on death row; some have been detained without trial at Guantanamo or tortured at CIA black sites; some have been held at US jails in Iraq. I litigate. I write. I teach. I hope my work makes the world marginally better, though I leave that judgment to others. My career has led me to a deeply personal moral philosophy, which I long ago distilled to eight words: There is no them, there is only us.

The Honourable Robert K. Rae, P.C., C.C., O.Ont., K.C.

Ambassador and Permanent Representative to the United Nations in New York
Toronto, Ontario

Bob Rae is the Ambassador and Permanent Representative of Canada to the United Nations in New York. He served as Premier of Ontario from 1990-1995, and interim Leader of the Liberal Party of Canada from 2011-2013, and he was elected to federal and provincial parliaments 11 times between 1978 and 2013. He received his Honours B.A. in Modern History from the University of Toronto, an M.Phil in Politics as a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University and graduated from the University of Toronto Faculty of Law in 1977.

As a lawyer in private practice, Mr. Rae led the restructuring of the Canadian Red Cross, the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, and chaired the board of the Royal Conservatory of Music. He also wrote Lessons to be Learned on the Air India bombing, and Ontario A Leader in Learning - a study of the Ontario higher education system. He was also named to the Security and Intelligence Review Committee by then Prime Minister Chrétien.

Mr. Rae's return to Parliament for the constituency of Toronto Centre in 2008 led to his appointment as Foreign Affairs spokesman for his party, and to his election as interim Leader in 2011. Between 2013 and 2020 he taught law and public policy at the University of Toronto and was a partner and senior counsel to the law firm OKT LLP, specializing in indigenous law and constitutional issues.

Rae Continued

In October 2017, Mr. Rae was appointed as Canada's Special Envoy to Myanmar. In this role, he engaged in diplomatic efforts to address the crisis in the country's Rakhine State and wrote the report "Tell Them We're Human" in 2018. In March 2020, he was named by Prime Minister Trudeau to be Canada's Special Envoy on Humanitarian and Refugee Issues. This led to his report "A Global Pandemic Requires a Global Response," which was made public shortly before his appointment as Ambassador to the UN.

Bob Rae is a Privy Councillor, a Companion of the Order of Canada, a member of the Order of Ontario, and has numerous awards and honorary degrees from institutions in Canada and around the world. In addition to several government reports, he is the author of five books. Along with music, reading, and writing, he loves tennis, golf, and fishing. He is married to Arlene Perly Rae, writer and public advocate on issues affecting women and children. They have three daughters and five grandchildren.

Berit Reiss-Andersen, Esq.

Chair of the Norwegian Nobel Committee
Vice Chair of the Nobel Foundation
Oslo, Norway

"I was born in Norway, and I have a master of law with honors from the University of Oslo 1981. My first working years I held different positions in public administration, and I was a prosecutor until I became a lawyer in private practice in 1987. I have worked out the Law firm Reiss-Andersen & Co, DLA Piper, and most recently from 2021 in Andenæs Aaløkken Veum. I have predominantly practiced criminal law, including corporate crime, human rights issues, compliance and investigations. I assist companies as well as individual clients. A major part of my working life has been spent in courtrooms. I was appointed Supreme Court Council in 2002, and I have litigated more than 120 cases in front of the Supreme Court. I have been engaged in the Norwegian Bar Association since I first joined the Oslo Bar as an officer in 1991. Since then, I have held various positions in different committees, inter alia President of the Norwegian Bar from 2008-2012. I was head of the Norwegian delegation to CCBE from 2010- 2018. I am active in Iba and a Vice Chair for the Bar Issues Commission. I have been sitting on various Boards and Committees of humanitarian, commercial and legal nature, in addition cultural activities. Fun fact, I have co-authored two crime novels. I was Vice Minister of Justice in 1997/1998. Since 2012 I have been a member of the Norwegian Nobel Committee and I have chaired the Committee since 2017. I

Honorable Francis X. Suarez

Mayor, City of Miami
Miami, Florida

Francis X. Suarez is the 43rd Mayor of Miami and the first Miami-born mayor. First elected with a mandate of 86 percent and then re-elected with a mandate of nearly 79 percent, Mayor Suarez has championed the integration of climate adaptive policies, Web 3.0 technology, and a free-market approach to government.

Robert P. Trout, FACTL

Schertler Onorato Mead & Sears
Washington, D.C.

Since March 1, 2021, Bob Trout has been Of Counsel at Schertler Onorato Mead & Sears in Washington, DC. Before joining his new firm, Mr. Trout practiced for almost 25 years at the litigation boutique he founded, which became known as Trout Cacheris & Solomon. His principal practice has been white-collar criminal defense, defense of agency enforcement actions, Congressional investigations, and complex commercial litigation. He has represented individuals in high-profile white-collar matters, including Enron, Deepwater Horizon, the Volkswagen emissions scandal, the Mueller Special Counsel investigation, and the Durham Special Counsel investigation. He has defended a number of cases involving charges of public corruption, most notably the criminal case brought against Congressman William Jefferson, during which Mr. Trout and his colleagues successfully challenged the first ever raid on a Congressional office. He also served as Special Counsel to the Council of the District of Columbia in an investigation of potential corruption in government contracts involving a D.C. agency. Most recently, he was lead counsel in the defense of a prominent criminal defense lawyer who was prosecuted—and acquitted—on federal obstruction of justice charges.

Before forming his own firm in 1996, Mr. Trout was a partner at Holland & Knight and before that at Dunnells, Duvall, Bennett & Porter. He began his legal career as a Trial Attorney at the Department of Justice, after which he served for four years as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mr. Trout is a former Chair of the Litigation Section of the D.C. Bar and is a graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law.
