Good afternoon. This was previously posted and there is now an update available. There are numerous pro bono opportunities available for volunteer counsel. A brief case description is listed below and also available for review on the Court's website found at www.flsd.uscourts.gov under Volunteer Opportunities located under Attorney Resources. If you are interested in volunteering, contact information for each case is listed in each description. Below is a newly added case:

Jia v. University Of Miami et al (17-CV-20018-DPG) [Updated on 03/29/2019]

Plaintiff brings various claims against the University of Miami, a former professor, a former student, and a university administrator over allegations that he was denied due process and defamed following another student's allegations of sexual misconduct against him. The former student defendant has requested counsel to represent her in this case. Discovery is ongoing and depositions are scheduled to occur the week of April 8, 2019. Limited appearance may be made for the purpose of defending the student's deposition, and/or to participate in discovery, in addition to representing this defendant through conclusion of the case. A status conference is scheduled in the case for April 2, 2019. If interested, please email FLSD\_ProBono@flsd.uscourts.gov (link sends e-mail).
