

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS UNVEILS REDESIGNED LOGO AND WEBSITE TO ADVANCE ITS MISSION

NEWPORT BEACH, CALIFORNIA (December 18, 2024) – The American College of Trial Lawyers (ACTL), an invitation-only fellowship of exceptional trial lawyers from the United States and Canada who have demonstrated the very highest standards of trial advocacy, ethical conduct, integrity, professionalism, and collegiality, is proud to announce the launch of its new logo and redesigned website.

These updates reflect the College's 75-year commitment to its mission and purpose while positioning us to embrace the future. The new logo was thoughtfully designed to honor the College's distinguished history, embody its values, and convey its vision for the years ahead. The redesigned website improves accessibility and serves as a comprehensive resource for members and the public alike.

"This evolution of our logo and website is more than just a redesign. It signifies our dedication to supporting the rule of law in an ever-changing world," said Richard H. Deane, Jr., President of the American College of Trial Lawyers. "As we look to the future, our mission remains the same: to preserve and enhance trial practice, civility, professionalism, and the administration of justice through support of an independent judiciary, the rule of law, trial by jury, and access to justice."

The new website offers updated tools for Fellows to connect, collaborate, and access vital resources. It also highlights the College's public-facing initiatives, including efforts to promote access to justice, support judicial independence, and protect the rule of law. Additionally, it features expanded access to the College's trial advocacy programs and resources designed to inspire and support the next generation of trial lawyers.

To explore the new website and learn more about the College's initiatives to support the rule of law, please visit www.actl.com.

About the American College of Trial Lawyers

Founded in 1950, the College is an invitation-only fellowship of exceptional trial lawyers from the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico who have demonstrated the very highest standards of trial advocacy, ethical conduct, integrity, professionalism, and collegiality. It is widely considered the premier professional trial organization in North America.

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF TRIAL LAWYERS

The American College of Trial Lawyers strives to preserve and enhance trial practice, civility, professionalism, and the administration of justice through support of an independent judiciary, the rule of law, trial by jury, and access to justice.

CONTACT:

Sarah Stokes

American College of Trial Lawyers, Senior Communications Manager

949-752-1801

sstokes@actl.com

###